The City of North Miami Presents NoMi Music Fest 2025: A Night of Soulful Sounds and Community Spirit

Hosted by Chubb Rock, Featuring Anthony Hamilton, Michel'le, Carl Thomas, and The Levert Experience

NORTH MIAMI, FL. — January 16, 2025 — The City of North Miami proudly announces the return of its signature event, NoMi Music Fest 2025, a celebration of music, culture, and community. This year's festival will take place on Saturday, February 22, 2025, from 6 p.m. to 11 p.m. at Cagni Park, located at 13498 NE 8 Avenue, North Miami.

Get ready for an unforgettable night hosted by the dynamic and engaging Chubb Rock, who knows how to keep the energy alive and the crowd entertained. The evening will feature electrifying performances by Anthony Hamilton, Michel'le, Carl Thomas, and The Levert Experience. From soulful ballads to R&B classics, the lineup promises a night filled with timeless hits that will have you dancing and singing along.

Since its launch in 2016, NoMi Music Fest has become a cornerstone event in South Florida, attracting thousands of attendees from across the region. The festival not only showcases world-class musical talent but also embodies the heart of North Miami, blending entertainment with a mission to uplift the community.

Proceeds from NoMi Music Fest benefit North Miami residents in need, providing critical assistance with utility bills and other essential services. The event is managed by a dedicated 501(c)(3) entity established by the City of North Miami in 2017, ensuring that every ticket purchased helps give back to the community.

"This year's NoMi Music Fest is a celebration of unity, culture, and the soulful sounds that bring us all together," said City of North Miami Mayor Alix Desulme. "It's not just about the music; it's about creating a space where we can celebrate our shared heritage and continue to make a positive impact on the lives of North Miami residents.”
